Description: Agios Romanos is a very graphic and colourful village occupied by fishermen and has its own small seaport, only 10km far from the main harbour of Tinos island, which has a very regular ship-timetable from Peiraias and Rafina harbours.

The housing estate Kamares offers 17 split residences, ranging between 63 and 130 sq.m.

It is built on three different levels, on one of the most beautiful and graphical seaside of Tinos with crystall clear
